Experiential lecture on "Dealing with Peer Competition" on Jan 30, 2025 at RBU, Nagpur

Dealing with peers is an art—one that can shape your confidence, influence, and success. Some will lift you up, others may challenge you, but the real power lies in how you respond. Will you let conflicts break you, or turn them into growth opportunities? Mastering peer interactions means knowing when to listen, when to stand your ground, and when to collaborate. Strong connections aren't just about fitting in; they're about creating meaningful networks that inspire and push you forward. Handle it right, and your peers won't just be companions—they'll be your greatest assets! the truth of life was explained by Dr. Vaidehi Chilwarwar from TISS, Mumbai

About 56 students from 6th Sem EC, Ramdeobaba University, Nagpur (previously Shri Ramdeobaba Institute of Technology) joined hands together to build insights on how and why his hustle culture happens to put us under "peer pressure"

They have co-created activities to focus on

1. Ways to shift the "competitive" mindset
2. Ways of practicing collaborations
3. Ways of dealing with the "RACE" culture
