Participants: Students of 9th and 10th Standard (40 participants)

Name of Faculty Incharge: Dr. Chandan Vichoray

Description of the Activity:

A Career Guidance and Counselling Session was organized for the students of Classes 9 and 10 at Savitri Phule Mahavidyalay, Gonhi. The session aimed to create awareness about various academic and professional opportunities available after Class 12. Five MBA students, along with Dr. Chandan Vichoray, conducted the session. They presented information about career options in Science, Commerce, and Arts streams and addressed individual queries from students. The students participated actively and showed keen interest in understanding different career pathways.

Objective:

To provide students with clarity on various career options available after Class 12 and to guide them in making informed academic and career choices.

---

Event Overview:

The session began with an introductory talk by Dr. Chandan Vichoray, highlighting the importance of career planning. MBA students gave short presentations on possible career avenues, followed by a Q&A session where students' doubts regarding subject selection and future prospects were addressed.

| Participants Category   | Number         |
|-------------------------|----------------|
| MBA I Year              | 5 (Volunteers) |
| Total (School Students) | 40             |

Learning Outcomes:

- Enhanced awareness among school students regarding career options after Class 12.
- Improved confidence in choosing subjects aligned with personal interests and strengths.
- Provided MBA students with practical exposure to community engagement and communication.

Feedback & Reflections:

The school authorities appreciated the efforts of the Department and expressed gratitude for organizing such a meaningful session. The students found the session informative and motivating, with several expressing a clearer vision of their future career goals.
